UNIVERSITY MEMORANDUM

No. 48
Series of 2020

TO: PNU Community
SUBJECT: Suspension of classes and related concerns

In view of the recent developments on the COVID-19 outbreak and the recent announcement by Manila City Mayor Francisco “Isko” Moreno Domagoso, PNU hereby suspends classes in all levels from March 9 to 15, 2020. Faculty members are hereby advised to maximize FLAs specifically the use of online platform (LMS) in light of the suspension of classes. In effect, there will be no evening and Saturday services from March 9 to 14, 2020.

Since the announcement of Mayor Isko Moreno was posted at the height of the PNU Task Force on COVID-19 meeting this afternoon, the following precautionary measures have been agreed upon and will be instituted until further notice:

- Suspension of all quality assurance-related activities, including accreditation visit
- Suspension of all co-curricular activities
- Suspension of all extension-related activities
- Suspension of all review programs

Concerned Offices/Units are expected to coordinate with the different stakeholders, internal and external, as to the plan/contingency for the affected activities.

The FMSS and UHSU are likewise directed to disinfect classrooms, venues, and offices this week in coordination with Heads of Units.

Other guidelines as agreed upon by the Task Force will be released through a separate memorandum.

Widest dissemination to all concerned is enjoined.
